This two-year program pairs early career female faculty with internal advocates and external mentors in order to help them successfully navigate work-life balance and also develop a robust network of renowned scholars from across Texas A&M and the nation.

Diversity-Related Programs and Initiatives

Created a college-level anonymous online reporting mechanism to reward positive diversity and inclusion-related experiences and address negative ones, using feedback to create a more equitable environment for all faculty, students, and staff, independent of status, reporting structure, or affiliation.
